

Ho Ho Ho

Thank you for the special treats
you left for me last night, I think I ate too many and my coat became too tight!

I heard my magic button pop while putting gifts under the tree.
I can't find my button anywhere,
will you take a look for me?

If you find my missing button,
hang it on your tree,
and every year on Christmas,
I hope you'll think of me!
